

ETHIOPIA Harar Extension

This short tour of the walled city of Harar can be booked as an extension to a longer Ethiopia itinerary, such as our escorted Historic Route tours or our Simien trekking expeditions. We recommend at two nights in Harar, though longer stays are also possible.

Day 1: to Harar

After an early breakfast in Addis Ababa, transfer to the airport to catch your flight to Dire Dawa (08:30-09:30).

Upon arrival, meet with your driver and transfer to Dire Dawa town for a coffee break and a brief tour of the Megala Market and Dire Dawa train station. Then lunch.

After lunch continue on to Harar, a short drive of 55kms that takes you over the scenic Dengego Pass, and through several small villages and markets. You may want to make a short stop en route at Awedai, where you can learn more about the production of Khat, one of Ethiopia's major exports.

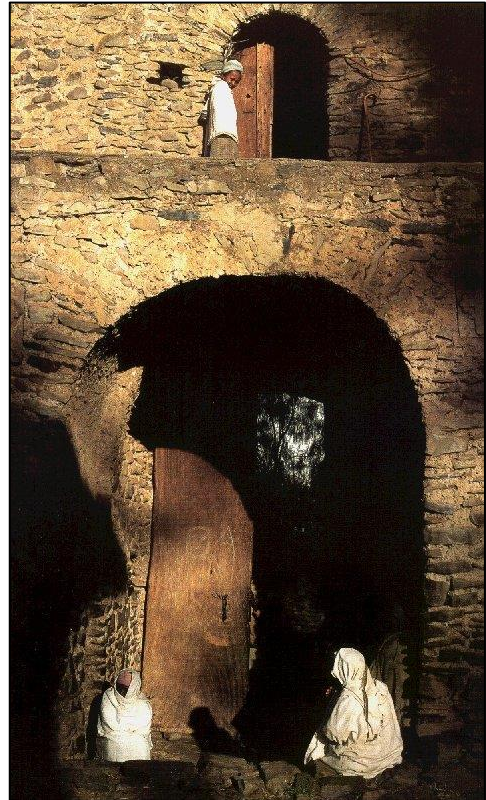

On arrival in Harar, check into the Ras Hotel. Rest during the afternoon, waiting for the midday heat to pass, then commence your walking tour of the Walled City, ending with dinner in a traditional Ethiopian restaurant. Overnight at the guesthouse.

Day 2: Harar

Full day tour of Harar, taking in Rimbaud's house, the major markets inside and outside the Walled City, the Tomb of Amir Nur, and the Camel Butchers and Black Kite rooftops.

In the afternoon, you'll have the chance to take part in a Hariri-style coffee ceremony. Your guide will explain the rich symbolism underpinning this most important of Ethiopian rituals.

In the evening, you might like to watch the nightly hyena feeding ritual. Alternatively, your guide can help you choose a good place to dine out and enjoy the evening at leisure in the city.

Your Financial Protection

All monies paid by you for the air holiday package shown [or flights if appropriate] are ATOL protected by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is ATOL 3145.

For more information see our booking terms and conditions.

Day 3: Fly back to Addis

Drive back to Dire Dawa for your afternoon flight to Addis Ababa. From Addis, continue with your onward travel arrangements or transfer to the airport for your return flight home.
