

Trekking in Nepal

Keeping it Simple:

This document should give you an indication of our basic Nepal trek prices excluding international flights. For a full quotation, please contact our office with details of your preferred dates, choice of accommodation, and group size.

We can design a tailor-made itinerary to your specifications. This can be organised as a private group for you and your friends, family or colleagues, or as an open group which we will promote on our website for others to join you. The chart below will give you an idea of the cost.

Alternatively, you may wish to join one of our existing open groups, which depart at fixed dates throughout the year. For more information, including a list of available dates that you can join, please contact us.
